-----X
VICTOR MARRERO, United States District Judge.

Consistent with the Court's Individual Practices, on April 19, 2021, the parties in the above captioned matter filed letter motions requesting authorization to file certain documents under seal. (See Dkt. Nos. 160 & 166.) The next day, counsel for General Electric Company indicated via email to chambers that it had inadvertently filed a document publicly and was seeking authorization to file that document also under seal, consistent with its letter motion. (See Dkt. Nos. 166 & 172.)

Materials may remain under seal "if the sealing order is narrowly tailored." Lugosch v. Pyramid Co. of Onondaga, 435 F.3d 110, 124 (2d Cir. 2006). The Court having reviewed the filings and email correspondence, grants the requests to file under seal and confirms that the document filed at Dkt. No. 172 may remain under seal. Accordingly, it is hereby

ORDERED that the letter motions to seal (Dkt. Nos. 160 & 166) are GRANTED.

SO ORDERED.
